PART I. HISTORY AND METHOD

1. HISTORICAL INTRODUCTION.....	3
Objectives in the Present Study.....	5
Development of Present Study.....	9
Difficulties encountered, 11. Cooperating groups, 13.
The Taxonomic Approach.....	16
In biology, 17. In applied and social sciences, 18. Statistical basis, 20.
Status of Previous Sex Studies.....	21
2. INTERVIEWING.....	35
Making Contacts.....	36
Establishing Rapport.....	41
The Confidence of the Record.....	44
Technical Devices in Interviewing.....	47
Putting the subject at ease, 47. Assuring privacy, 47. Establishing rapport, 48. Sequence of topics, 48. Recognizing the subject's mental status, 49. Recording at time of interview, 50. Systematic coverage, 50. Supplementary exploration, 51. Standardizing the point of the question, 51. Adapting the form of the question, 52. Avoiding bias, 52. Direct questions, 53. Placing the burden of denial on the subject, 53. Avoiding multiple questions, 54. Rapid-fire questioning, 54. Cross-checks on accuracy, 54. Proving the answer, 55. Forcing a subject, 55. Limits of the interview, 56. Avoiding personal identifications, 57. Avoiding controversial issues, 57. Overt activities versus attitudes, 57. Interviewing young children, 58.
The Interviewer's Background of Knowledge.....	59
3. STATISTICAL PROBLEMS.....	63
Nature of the Data.....	63
Coding.....	71
Supplementary Data.....	73
The Twelve-way Breakdown.....	75
Sex, 75. Race-cultural group, 75. Marital status, 76. Age, 76. Age at adolescence, 77. Educational level, 77. Occupational class of subject, 77. Occupational class of parent, 79. Rural-urban background, 79. Religious groups, 79. Religious adherence, 79. Geographic origin, 81.
Size of Sample.....	82
Diversification of Sample.....	92
Hundred Percent Samples.....	93

Controlling Partial Samples.....	101
Order of Sampling.....	104
Synthesizing a U.S. Sample.....	105
Statistical Analyses.....	109
Individual frequencies, 110. Group frequencies, 110. Frequency curves, 111. Group averages, 111. Means, 112. Standard deviation of the mean, 112. Medians, 113. Percents of individual outlet, 114. Percents of group outlet, 114. Correlation coefficients, 114. Accumulative incidence curves, 114.
4. VALIDITY OF THE DATA.....	120
Re-takes.....	121
Comparisons of Spouses.....	125
Other Cross-checks.....	128
Memory versus Physical Findings.....	130
Smooth Trends.....	132
Hundred Percent Samples.....	133
Comparisons of Interviewers.....	133
Stability of Techniques.....	143
Immediate versus Remote Recall.....	148
Older versus Younger Generations.....	150
Conclusions.....	150
 PART II. FACTORS AFFECTING SEXUAL OUTLET
5. EARLY SEXUAL GROWTH AND ACTIVITY.....	157
Erotic Arousal and Orgasm.....	157
Pre-adolescent Sex Play.....	163
Homosexual play, 168. Heterosexual play, 173. Animal contacts, 174.
Pre-adolescent Orgasm.....	175
Adolescence.....	182
6. TOTAL SEXUAL OUTLET.....	193
Frequency of Total Outlet.....	193
Individual Variation.....	195
Factors Effecting Variation.....	203
Low Frequencies and Sublimation.....	205
High Frequencies of Outlet.....	213
7. AGE AND SEXUAL OUTLET.....	218
Adolescent Sexual Activity.....	219
Maximum activity, 219. Social significance, 221. Institutional problems, 223.
Sexual Aging.....	226
Old Age and Impotence.....	235
Masturbation and Age.....	238
Nocturnal Emissions and Age.....	243
Petting to Climax, and Age.....	245
Pre-marital Intercourse and Age.....	249
Marital Intercourse and Age.....	253

Extra-marital Intercourse and Age.....	257
Homosexual Activity and Age.....	259
Animal Contacts and Age.....	261
Post-marital Outlets and Age.....	262
8. MARITAL STATUS AND SEXUAL OUTLET.....	263
Social and Legal Limitations.....	263
Total Sexual Outlet.....	268
Sources of Sexual Outlet.....	273
Masturbation, 273. Nocturnal emissions, 277. Pre-marital petting, 277.
Heterosexual intercourse, 277. Homosexual contacts, 285. Animal contacts, 289.
Post-marital Outlets.....	294
9. AGE OF ADOLESCENCE AND SEXUAL OUTLET.....	297
Onset of Sexual Activity.....	299
Frequencies of Total Outlet.....	303
Factors Involved.....	309
Sources of Outlet.....	313
Masturbation, 313. Pre-marital intercourse, 313. Homosexual outlet,
315. Other outlets, 315.
Aging versus Early Activity.....	319
Conclusions.....	325
10. SOCIAL LEVEL AND SEXUAL OUTLET.....	327
Defining Social Levels.....	329
Educational level as a criterion, 330. Occupational class as a criterion,
331. Realities of social levels, 332.
Incidences and Frequencies of Sexual Outlet.....	335
Total outlet, 335. Masturbation, 339. Nocturnal emissions, 343. Heterosexual petting, 345. Pre-marital intercourse, 347. Intercourse with prostitutes, 351. Marital intercourse, 355. Homosexual contacts, 357. Ani-

Masturbation, 375. Petting, 377. Pre-marital Intercourse, 381. Extramarital intercourse, 383. Homosexual contacts, 383.
Social Implications.....	384
In clinical practice, 386. In social service, 387. In the Army and Navy,
388. In everyday contacts, 389. In the law, 389.
Social Levels among Negroes.....	393
11. STABILITY OF SEXUAL PATTERNS.....	394
Patterns in Successive Generations.....	394
Comparisons of accumulative incidences, 396. Comparisons of frequencies, 399.
Vertical Mobility: at an Early Age.....	417
Occupational classes 2 and 3, 426. Occupational class 4, 427. Occupational class 5, 433. Occupational class 6, 433. Occupational class 7, 436.

Vertical Mobility: at Later Ages.....	436
Transmission of Sexual Mores.....	440
12. RURAL-URBAN BACKGROUND AND SEXUAL OUTLET.....	449
Frequencies of Total Outlet.....	451
Specific Sexual Outlets.....	453
Masturbation, 453. Nocturnal emissions, 453. Petting to climax, 453.
Pre-marital intercourse, 455. Marital intercourse, 455. Homosexual outlet, 455. Animal contacts, 459.
13. RELIGIOUS BACKGROUND AND SEXUAL OUTLET.....	465
Total Sexual Outlet.....	469
Masturbation.....	472
Nocturnal Emissions.....	476
Pre-marital Petting to Climax.....	477
Pre-marital Intercourse.....	477
Marital Intercourse.....	479
Homosexual Outlets.....	482
Religious Bases of the Mores.....	483

PART III. SOURCES OF SEXUAL OUTLET

14. MASTURBATION.....	497
Definition.....	497
References.....	498
Incidences and Frequencies.....	499
Incidences, 499. Pre-adolescent activity, 499. Adolescent activity, 506.
In various groups, 507.
Techniques.....	509
Correlations with Other Outlets.....	511
Significance of Masturbation.....	512
