

Contents

List of Illustrations	xi
General Editors' Preface	xiii
Acknowledgements	xv
Note on Transliteration	xvii
Glossary	xviii
Introduction: Projects of a New Vision	1
Constructing Soviet Nationalities	5
Virtual Travelling: Maps, Itineraries, and Politics of Vision	8
Local Sights, Global Visions: Russian and Soviet Travel Films	11
Across the Soviet Travelogues: The Roadmap	15
1. They Must Be Represented: Kulturfilm and the National Niche in Soviet Cinema	18
Cultural, Ethnographic, Documentary: The Elusive Film Classification	20
Think With Us, Think Like Us! Shaping the Audience through Film	30
Vostokfilm: The Studio for the Soviet 'Other'	34
2. Absolute Kinography: Vertov's Cine-Race Across the Soviet Universe	40
Advertising the Soviet Universe	42
New Imperial Catalogue: Surveying Ethnic Bodies	47
Network Community: Gostorg and the New Soviet Unity	53
Rhetorical Battles over Modernity and Backwardness	60
3. Arctic Travelogues: Conquering the Soviet Far North	63
The Contact Zone: National Variety beyond the Arctic Circle	65
Arctic Tales: From Contact Zone to Icy Desert	72
Tragedy into Triumph: The Rise of Affective Travelogues	77

Contents

4. Forest People, Wild and Tamed: Travelogues in the Far East	83
The First Blueprints: Following Arsenev's Trail	84
Self-reflexive Tale: Film-diary and Subjectivity	88
Terra Incognita: Exploring the Frontier	90
Land of the Golds : Amo Bek-Nazarov's Two Versions of Progress	95
Babylon Re-enacted: The Nanai, the Chinese, and the Jews in Mikhail Slutskii's Far East	99
Birobidzhan: Civilizing the Wilderness	103
Playing the Native: Transformation of Expedition Films	108
5. Diagnosing the Nations: Nationalizing Dirt and Disease on the Screen	114
Syphilis Against Socialism: Medical Expedition As a Bearer of Social Progress	119
Clearing the Vision: Eye Diseases and Constructions of New National Bodies	127
Journeys of Health: Tourist Bodies in Motion	133
6. Touring the Caucasus	138
Dagestan: The Space of Diversity	144
Chechnya As It Is: Native and Tourist Gazes	147
The Heart of the Mountains: Svanetia Wild and Conquered	155
7. Camels and Railways: Reframing Central Asia	162
Views from the Roof of the World: Mapping the Pamir Mountains and its Peoples	164
The Iron Unity: Conquering Turkestan	178
Turksib as a Media Campaign	184
Future of the Desert	186
Imagined Community: Unveiling the Kino-Eye	188
Epilogue: Day of a New World	199
Notes	215
Filmography	266
Bibliography	273
Index	291