

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter	Page
I. INTRODUCTION.....	1
A. Research Materials.....	1
B. Description of Study.....	2
C. The Dissertation and Related Studies.....	3
D. General Cultural Studies and Mass Communications Research.....	27
E. Definition of the "Gangster Film".....	31
F. The Gangster Film at Warner Brothers Studio.....	33
II. THE ARCHETYPICAL FILMS.....	43
A. "Little Caesar" 1930.....	43
B. "The Public Enemy" 1931.....	61
C. "Scarface" 1932.....	87
D. "The Petrified Forest" 1936.....	94
III. VARIATION AND DECAY OF THE GANGSTER FILM: HOW IT CAME ABOUT.....	102
A. Edward G. Robinson: The "Little Caesar" Syndrome.....	104
B. Edward G. Robinson: Development of the "Comic Caesar".....	112
C. James Cagney: "The Public Enemy" Revisited.....	119
D. James Cagney: The Con Man Films.....	136
E. James Cagney: Service-Action-Vocation Films.....	151
F. Humphrey Bogart: The One-Dimensional Bad Man and The Second Banana Gunsels.....	181
IV. VARIATION AND DECAY OF THE GANGSTER FILM: WHY IT CAME ABOUT.....	192
A. Contributing Factors: The Copies, The Formula and The Code.....	192
B. General Trend of the Entertainment Media to Make Copies of a Popular Genre.....	201
C. Difficulties Encountered in Basing a Genre on "Stories From the Headlines".....	206
V. THE SOCIALLY CONSCIOUS QUALITIES OF THE GANGSTER GENRE AND THE HISTORICAL DOCUMENTARY DRAMAS: OUT OF DECAY, NEW GROWTH.....	209

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter	Page
APPENDIX I: Synopses of Pertinent Subsidiary Films Outside the Genre.....	253
APPENDIX II: Credits and Cast Lists.....	260
BIBLIOGRAPHY.....	282
VITA.....	300