

Contents

Acknowledgements	page 7
List of Illustrations	11
Foreword	13

PART ONE—Jokes and How to Spot Them

1. Custard Pies with a Message	19
2. The Emotional Anatomy of a Gag	20
3. The Mechanics of Comic Criticism	27
4. Comedy as Sweet and Sour	33
5. Comic Attack	37
6. The Comic Underworld of the Infra Dig	42
7. How many Laughs can Dance on the Point of a Gag?	49
8. From Satire to Saturnalia	53
9. The World turned Inside-out—and On	62

PART TWO—The Great American Silence

10. The Founding Fathers	67
11. Aimless Odysseus of the Alleyways	78
12. Self-Help with a Smile	84
13. I was a Middle-Aged Water-Baby	89
14. Beau Chumps and Church Bells	93
15. Krazy Kat Daze	97
16. Sunnyside Up	101
17. Spoof and Satire	106
18. The Lubitsch Touch	109

CONTENTS

PART THREE—Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf?

19. Lightly and Politely	page 117
20. Old Wheelers, New Dealers	123
21. The Politics of Personality	131
22. The Cosiness Backlash	135
23. That Touch of Tarnish	138
24. Suckers and Soaks	142
25. Four Against Alienation	150
26. Hallelujah, I'm a Mouse	159

PART FOUR—Kiss the Boys Good-bye

27. The New Sarcasm	165
28. Six Comedians in Search of an Author	170
29. Hell is a City	173
30. Populism Peters Out	177
31. Theatre of War	179
32. The Drawing-room Jungle	183

PART FIVE—And Therefore Take the Present Time

33. High, High, So High, So-Ci	189
34. Old Wine in New Bottles	191
35. Cold War, Cold Feet	198
36. Think Pink	203
37. Wilder Still and Wilder	211
38. The Celluloid Couch	222
39. I dreamed I Flew through the Air on a Custard Pie; What Could That Mean, Doctor?	231
40. That's All, Folks	240
41. Pizzicato Pussycats	242
42. The New Frontiers	246
References	249
Some Further Reading	251
Index	255