

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	7
Introduction	11
Ksenya Gurshtein and Sonja Simonyi

Part I Key Figures

1. The Experimentalism of Gábor Bódy	35
Gábor Gelencsér
2. Circles, Lines, and Documentary Designs: Tomislav Gotovac's Belgrade Trilogy	59
Greg de Cuir Jr.
3. From the Workshop of the Film Form to Martial Law: On the Intersecting and Bifurcating Paths of Paweł Kwiek's and Józef Robakowski's Cinematographic Work in the 1970s and the 1980s	77
Łukasz Mojsak

Part II Production, Support, and Distribution

4. Amateur Cinema in Bulgaria	103
Vladimir Iliev with Katerina Lambrinova
5. The Polish Educational Film Studio and the Cinema of Wojciech Wiszniewski	125
Masha Shpolberg
6. Home Movies and Cinematic Memories: Fixing the Gaze on Vukica Đilas and Tatjana Ivančić	151
Petra Belc

Part III Viewing Contexts, Theories, and Reception

7. Alone in the Cinemascope 177
Aleksandar Bošković
8. kinema ikon—Experiments in Motion (1970–89) 197
Ileana L. Selejan
9. AudioVision: Sound, Music, and Noise in East German
Experimental Films 221
Seth Howes

Part IV Intersection of the Arts

10. Intersections of Art and Film on the Wrocław Art Scene, 1970–80 245
Marika Kuźmicz
11. Conceptual Artist, Cognitive Film: Miklós Erdély at the Balázs
Béla Studio 265
Ksenya Gurshtein
12. Works and Words, 1979: Manifesting Eastern European Film and/as Art in Amsterdam 293
Sonja Simonyi
13. Wizardry on a Shoestring: Čaroděj and Experimental Filmmaking in Late Socialist Czechoslovakia 317
Tomáš Glanc
- Index 329