

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	PAGE
I. ORGANIZATION	I
The Start—The First Meetings—Plans for Other Meetings—Raising Funds—Questions—Suggested Activities
II. CHOOSING THE IDEA	7
Guiding Principles—Ideas for Beginners—Newsreel and Activity (Publicity) Films—Extra-curricular Activity—Teaching Topics—History Dramatized—Films Based on Literature—Creative Film Ideas—Community Possibilities—Other Topics—Questions—Suggested Activities
III. THE SCENARIO	19
Why Plan Ahead?—Developing the Continuity—The Scenario and Its Parts—“Hooks”—Research Work—Test for Pictorial Effectiveness—Similarity to Written Composition—Interest Values—Time Needed—The Story Conference—Scenario Form—The Dramatic Scenario—Humor and Pathos—Judging Dramatic Scenarios—Titles—Sample Scenarios: Spinning Spokes , When the Cat's Away , The Sentinel , Our Children Learn To Read , Our Water Supply , Lantern Slide Binding , The Eyes of East View —Questions—Suggested Activities
IV. BUYING EQUIPMENT	59
Essential Equipment—Camera—Tripod—Projector—Screen—Splicer—Rewind Arms—Viewer—Reels and Cans—Titling Outfit—Exposure Meter or Charts—Reflectors, Standards, and Clamp Attachments—Bulbs—Fuses, Extension Cords, and Double Sockets—Filters—Extra Lenses—Masks—Fading Device—Film—Secondhand Equipment—Questions—Suggested Activities
V. USING THE EQUIPMENT	71
f Markings on the Lens—Camera Speeds—Shutter Speeds—Focusing—Critical-focusing Device—Range Finder—Threading the Camera—Footage Meter—Unloading the Camera—Care of Camera—Tripod—Exposure Meter or Charts—Running Time for Film—Speed Ratings for Various Films—Outdoor Lighting with Black-and-White—Camera Speeds and Exposure—Running the Projector—Making Splices—Questions—Suggested Activities
VI. FILMING THE PICTURE	83
The Production Crew—Special Instructions to Crew—The Director—The Cameraman—The Lighting Assistants—The Script Secretary—The Assistant Director—Make-up for the Actors—Choice of Backgrounds—

	PAGE
Elimination of Unpleasant Backgrounds—The Making of Special Sets— Placement of Subjects in the Scene—Parallax—Angle Shots—Changing the Scenario—Order of Shooting Scenes—Length of Shots—Amount of Film Needed—Time for Filming a Picture—Mistakes To Guard Against —Questions—Suggested Activities
VII. ADVANCED TECHNIQUES	95
Indoor Lighting for Black-and-White Film—Knowledge of Electricity— Color Film—Filters—Using the Telephoto Lens—Making Fades and Lap Dissolves—Reverse-Action Shots—Substitution Shots—Photo- graph Portraits Come to Life—Animated Pictures—Silhouette Effects— Using a Mask—Double Exposure—Questions—Suggested Activities
VIII. FINAL PREPARATION AND SHOWING	107
Titles—Illustrations in Titles—Film for Titling—Special Title Effects— Editing—Care of the Film—Sound Added to a Silent Film—Use of Loud- speaker—Phonograph Music with Showings—Recorded Sound, Talks, and Music—The Commentator—Introductory Speech—Publicity— Place of Showing—After the Local Showing— The Sentinel (score)— Health in Akron (score)—Questions—Suggested Activities
APPENDIX
A. LIST OF SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES THAT HAVE REPORTED FILM-MAKING ACTIVITIES	122
B. A LISTING OF TYPICAL ANSWERS OF THIRTY SCHOOLS ON QUESTIONS RE- LATING TO FILM PRODUCTION	130
GLOSSARY OF TECHNICAL TERMS	133
BIBLIOGRAPHY ON MOVIE-MAKING	139
INDEX	143