

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	xiii
Animation Principles	xiii
Becoming an Animator	xiv
Becoming an Actor	xvi
Becoming a Storyteller	xviii
Becoming a Creative Practitioner	xix
Chapter 1: Aspects of Acting for Animation	1
Creative Approaches to Animation	1
Simulation	2
Representation	2
Interpretation	3
Story, Story, Story	4
Working with an Existing Script	5
Writing Your Own Script	6
Cinematography and Editing	8
Mise-en-Scene	8
Montage	10
Environment and Screen Space	11
The Setting	11
Screen Format	18
Sound	18
Character	20
Summary	24
Chapter 2: Types of Performance	27
Stanislavski's System	29
Study	29
Emotional Memory	30
Analyzing the Script and the "Magic If"	31
Motivation	32
Objectives	32

Obstacles.....	34
Tools or Methods	34
Actions	34
Method Acting.....	35
Naturalism and Reality	36
Epic Theatre	40
Comedy	43
Summary.....	45
Chapter 3: Format, Genre, and Audience.....	47
Audiences	48
Know Your Audience.....	48
Target Your Audience	49
Genre.....	51
Comedy	51
Drama.....	51
Documentary.....	52
Format.....	53
Features	53
Short Form	54
Television.....	55
TV Series	55
Internet	56
Hand-Held Devices	56
Corporate Video	57
Games.....	57
Commercials	58
Summary.....	59
Chapter 4: Character and Personality.....	61
Character Development.....	62
Formats	64
Viewing Environment.....	65
Budget	66
Animator as Actor.....	66
Know Your Characters.....	69
Physicality of Characters	72
Character Design	73
The Animation Bible	79

Character Types	80
Character and Personality	81
Relationships	82
Dynamics of Character Interaction—Every Hero Needs a Villain	84
Summary	85
Chapter 5: Principles of Performance	87
Empathy and Engagement	87
Why Empathy is Important	87
Identification and Lack of Empathy	89
Engaging the Audience	89
Empathy for the Villain	91
Motivation	93
Wants and Needs	95
What Are You Trying to Say?	97
Props	99
Summary	104
Chapter 6: Making a Performance	105
Body Language	105
Character Interaction	112
Effort	115
Silence	125
Reflex and Other Physical Reactions	131
Comedy Performance	135
Summary	136
Chapter 7: Scene Composition	139
Planning a Scene	141
Storyboards	142
Thumbnail or Rough Storyboards	143
Presentation Storyboards	144
Working Storyboards	145
The Animatic	148
Timing	148
Pacing	148
Phrasing	149
Animation Timing	149

Preparing the Shot—Layouts	150
Overlays	151
Underlays	152
Field Guides	152
Character Layouts	155
Bar Charts and Dope Sheets	156
Blocking Out Animation and Action	159
Scene Dynamics and Screen Space	161
Rehearsing Action for Performance	164
Summary	165
Chapter 8: Working with Actors	167
The Voices	169
Casting	169
Cartoony or Non-Cartoony Voices?	172
The Rehearsal	172
The Recording	176
Be Open to Change	177
How to Talk to Actors	178
Verbs	180
Line Readings	180
Feedback	181
A Few Extra Thoughts	181
Live Action and Animation	182
Motion Capture	184
Summary	189
Index	191