

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgements	xi
Contributors	xiii

Introduction	1
Stefan Solomon and Lúcia Nagib

PART I METHODOLOGIES

1. Hegel, Cinema, and the Other Arts	15
Alain Badiou
2. One-Dimensional Man? A Reply to Alain Badiou	21
James Hellings
3. Hybrid Variations on an Intermedial Theme	29
Robert Stam
4. Parallax Historiography and Metareference: The Intramedial Case of Nagasaki Shun'ichi's Heart, Beating in the Dark	47
Mark Player

PART II TECHNOLOGIES AND ENVIRONMENTS

5. Intermediality and the Carousel Slide Projector	65
Julian Ross
6. Up the Junction, Intermediality, and Social Change	81
Sarah Street
7. When the Past Is Present: Digital Cinema and the Philosophical Toys of Pre-Cinema	97
Ismail Xavier
8. Panoramic Views, Planetary Visions: An Intermedial Analysis of Medium Earth and Walden	113
Tiago de Luca

9. Elemental Intermedia	131
Stefan Solomon
 PART III NATIONAL AND REGIONAL PHENOMENA
10. Cinema from the Perspective of the Stage: For an Integrated History of Theatrical Entertainment in Brazil	151
Luciana Corrêa de Araújo
11. Flamenco on Screen: The Intermedial Legacy of Carmen Amaya in Bajará	168
Albert Elduque
12. Impurity and Identification: Historicising Chinese Cinema through Opera	185
Cecilia Mello
13. Historicising the Story through Film and Music: An Intermedial Reading of Heimat 2	202
Lúcia Nagib
 PART IV INTERMEDIAL ARTISTS
14. Stephen Dwoskin, an Intermedial Artist	225
Rachel Garfield, Jenny Chamarette, and Darragh O'Donoghue
15. Intermedial Voices: Intersections in Feminist Sound and Moving Image	247
Claire M. Holdsworth
16. Entanglements of Intermediality: Polanski, Pinter, Steptoe and Son	267
Jonathan Bignell
17. The Intermedial Reworking of History in Peter Greenaway's The Tulse Luper Suitcases Trilogy	281
Fátima Chinita
 Index	 301