

Contents

| | |
|--|-----|
| Acknowledgments | ix |
| Introduction: How Documentaries Went Mainstream | 1 |
| 1. Direct Cinema Blossoms, but Little Support for Documentary Films in Theaters (1960 to 1977) | 9 |
| 2. A Rising Tide: How the Independent Film Movement Boosted Documentaries (1978 to 1989) | 39 |
| 3. Fighting for a Place on Public Television: Independent Filmmakers Lobby (1978 to 1990) | 68 |
| 4. Television or Cinema? Redefining Documentary for Prestige and Profit (1990 to 1999) | 88 |
| 5. The Docbuster Era (2000 to 2007) | 116 |
| 6. Streaming Video Drives Documentary Production Trends and Private Investment (2008 to 2022) | 151 |
| Conclusion: Documentary Film Inches Closer to the Center, but Core Tensions Remain | 188 |
| Bibliography | 197 |
| Index | 203 |