

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Contributors	xi
A Note on Referencing, Availability of the Films and Language	xv
Introduction: Modelling Local Content for Animation in the Middle East Stefanie Van de Peer	1
1 Restoring Cultural Historical Memories: Animating Folktales to Form New Iraqi Identities Amber Shields	29
2 The Key Frames: Milestones in the Institutional History of Animation in Iran Maryam Ghorbankarimi	51
3 Local Minds, Foreign Hands: Animation in Saudi Arabia and the Gulf Omar Adam Sayfo	69
4 Turkish Animation: A Contemporary Reflection of the Karagöz Shadow Play Başak Ürkmez	84
5 From Animated Cartoons to Suspended Animation: A History of Syrian Animation Stefanie Van de Peer	107
6 Cultivating an Arthouse Viewership: Lebanese Animation Audiences Grow Up Lina Ghaibeh and George Khoury (Jad)	129
7 Pixelated Intifada: Animating Palestine Under Digital Occupation Colleen Jankovic	150

Contents

8	Beyond the Burden of Representation: Israeli Animation Between Escapism and Subversion Yael Friedman	172
9	From the Pioneers to the Revolutionaries: The Art of Animation in Egypt Mohamed Ghazala	196
10	Animating Libya in Shorthand: The Skilful Art of Visualising the Repressed Body Nisrine Mansour	217
11	Cinema Against an Authoritarian Backdrop: A History of Tunisian Animation Maya Ben Ayed	240
12	Animation in Morocco: New Generations and Emerging Communities Paula Callus	262
	Bibliography	282
	Index	298

124024