

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
MEMBERS OF COMMITTEE ON INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS OF THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF CINEMATOGRAPHY....	IX
AUTHOR'S PREFACE	XI
FOREWORD by Rufus B. von KleinSmid, President of The University of Southern California and Director of the American Institute of Cinematography.....	XIII
INTRODUCTION by James T. Shotwell, Chairman of the National Committee of the United States of America on International Intellectual Cooperation.....	XV

CHAPTER I

THE CINEMA AS A VITAL FORCE IN NATIONAL AND WORLD AFFAIRS	1
--	---

The film as a "germ of international culture"—The entertainment film leads to educational and cultural films—Jesse L. Lasky on film as educational agency for peace—Ambassador Paul Claudel on influence of American films in France—"One half of the world knows not how the other half lives"—Walter Wanger on "120,000 American Ambassadors"—"Hollywood wields a weapon mightier than the sword"—"The cinema has got into our blood"—Will H. Hays on films as a vital social force—Propaganda in films—Barriers against exchange of "cultural goods"—85,000,000 people in the United States attend the 17,541 cinemas each week—27,000 miles of film per day—A $2,650,000,000 investment—But not all may see films—Laurel and Hardy in China—Foreign films in the United States—Films as a universal medium of expression—Samuel Goldwyn on the perplexities of a producer—Gone with the Wind sells 2,000,000 copies, while a good film reaches 100,000,000 persons—Walter Wanger tells of producer's problems—Doubling for voice—Language differences—Hollywood film costs—International character of screen talent in American films—Swiss Federal Council on importance of the film as cultural medium—American films make Europe laugh—“L’Affaire Mickey Mouse”—The British “Moyne” Report on great influences of the film.

CHAPTER II

NATIONAL OFFICIAL CENSORSHIP OF MOTION PICTURES.... 33

Official censors are very real human beings seeking to regulate screen diet for their countries—Reasons for censorship—Maintaining public order—Reflecting on government or ruler—Reflecting on a national patriot—Villains of the piece—Religious objections—Propaganda—Gangsterism and crime—“Unnecessary roughness”—Offense against third States—“Idiot’s Delight,” “The Road Back,” spy pictures, “Inside Nazi Germany,” a Paramount newsreel in London—A Russian film in Shanghai—Special cases: “Ecstasy,” “All Quiet on the Western Front,” “Edith Cavell” (“Dawn”), “Green Pastures,” “Mati Hari,” “Blockade,” “Confessions of a Nazi Spy.”

CHAPTER III

OFFICIAL CENSORSHIP IN THE UNITED STATES..... 54

No federal censorship as such—Censorship in seven states and some cities—Attempts to establish censorship in thirty states; but only Ohio, New York, Pennsylvania, Kansas, Maryland, Virginia, and Massachusetts have censorship—Florida censorship law held unconstitutional—Federal “regulation” of motion pictures—The Upshaw bill and attempt at federal censorship—Proposals for federal censorship of exported films—The London Times on influence of exported films—Radio censorship and film censorship—Legality of state and municipal censorship—A study of the rules of censorship in seven states with examples of films censored—The March of Time film in Kansas (a “tempest in a teapot”)—“Bureau of Sunday Censorship” in Massachusetts—Special position of “current events” films or newsreels—The New York censors kept busy—Court tests over “Ecstasy” and “Tomorrow’s Children”—Fate of a Paramount film on Spanish Civil War in Ohio.

CHAPTER IV

UNOFFICIAL CENSORSHIP IN THE UNITED STATES..... 88

The National Board of Review—Some views regarding censorship—Will H. Hays on censorship—Role of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America—The Production Code—The Code analyzed—Excessive drinking scenes—Crime and use of machine guns and other guns and weapons—Cruelty to animals.

CHAPTER V

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE CENSORS..... 96

Let each country speak for itself: Argentina . . . Yugoslavia.

Authentic data on rules of censorship—Illustrations of films banned or deleted.

CHAPTER VI

OFFICIAL INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS AND THE CINEMA 200

International Institute of Educational Cinematography at Rome—Withdrawal of Italy from the League of Nations results in closing of the Institute at Rome—International Convention on duty-free circulation of educational films—The League of Nations and films—Secretary-General of the League reports on film problems—Child Welfare Commission of the League considers films for children—The International Labor Organization—The Pan American Union.

CHAPTER VII

SOME UNOFFICIAL AGENCIES CONCERNED WITH THE CINEMA	213
---	-----

American Institute of Cinematography—Association of School Film Libraries—American Film Center—International Film Center—International Federation of Film Libraries—Motion Picture Project of American Council on Education—British Empire Film Library—British Film Institute.

CHAPTER VIII

CULTURAL, DOCUMENTARY, AND EDUCATIONAL FILMS.....	223
---	-----

Definitions—"The River"—P. Rotha on educational films—The Duc de Levis Mirepoix on films as means of education—Documentary films in England—Ralph Jester on "Hollywood and Pedagogy"—Growing use of educational films in the schools—Charles F. Hoban on increasing use of educational films—Department of Visual Education, University of California Extension Division—Visual Education at the University of Minnesota—Rockefeller grant to Progressive Educational Association—Will H. Hays on educational films—A. J. Patel on educational films in India—United States government films—Fanning Hearon on costs of production—International Congress on Educational Cinematography, Rome, 1934—Film on British democracy—Educational films in France and Germany—German distinctions between educational, cultural, and news-reel films—A noteworthy cultural film on Holland—Educational films in Greece, a typical example of the growing use of educational films—International Exhibition of Agricultural Films, Rome, 1940—Films at the New York World's Fair—"Land of Liberty," a splendid cultural film on phases of American history.

CHAPTER IX

INTERNATIONAL COMMERCE IN FILMS..... 245

American films stimulate study of English language—Mr. Engle on influence of films on foreign trade—Besides official censorship, quotas, tariffs, dubbing requirements, and national film monopolies hinder international commerce in films—Examples of various restrictions—Professor Carus on triangular aspects of trade in films—Mr. Golden on foreign film legislation—The Moyne Report—Tendency toward national production of films—Mr. Ostrer of British-Gaumont Corporation and Mr. Hays on importance of a foreign market for films—Mr. Kondo on Japanese film production—Geneva Convention on duty-free educational films—Closing of the Rome Institute—Buenos Aires Convention on Duty-Free Educational and Publicity Films—Other film treaties.

APPENDICES

I. SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY	269
II. SELECTED LIST OF CULTURAL, DOCUMENTARY, AND EDUCATIONAL FILMS AND FILM SOURCES.....	281
Stress given to films having some bearing upon international relations.
III. TEXT OF CODE TO GOVERN THE MAKING OF TALK- ING, SYNCHRONIZED, AND SILENT MOTION PICTURES	292
IV. LIST OF STATES WHICH HAVE RATIFIED THE GENEVA CONVENTION FOR FACILITATING THE INTERNATIONAL CIRCULATION OF EDUCA- TIONAL FILMS	297
V. TEXT OF BUENOS AIRES CONVENTION ON EDUCA- TIONAL AND PUBLICITY FILMS AND LIST OF STATES THAT HAVE RATIFIED.....	299
VI. TEXT OF FILM TREATY BETWEEN SPAIN AND SAN SALVADOR	302
VII. TEXT OF NEELY BILL.....	303
Regulation of Block-booking and Blind Selling.	