

Contents

INTRODUCTION . . . . .	Page 11
------------------------	------------

Part One

The Development of the Industry

I. THE STORY-TELLER OF THE PEOPLE . . . . .	17
The attractions of the cinema – Publicity – The shape of the industry today.
II. THE FOUNDATION OF AN INDUSTRY (1896–1914)	22
The new entertainment gives rise to a new industry – “The lower-priced places are in front” – Open market distribution – The birth of the American industry – “They found Hollywood”.
III. CONQUEST BY HOLLYWOOD (1914–1927)	32
The ownership of British cinemas – The extent of American dominance – The Cinematograph Films Act, 1927.
IV. YEARS OF TRANSITION (1927–1930)	45
Gaumont-British Picture Corporation Ltd. – British International Pictures Ltd. (Associated British Picture Corporation) – Amalgamation of Gaumont-British and P.C.T. Ltd. – The first effects of the Cinematograph Films Act, 1927 – The “Talkies”.
V. YEARS OF EXPANSION (1930–1939)	55
Odeon Theatres Ltd. – The structure of the industry in 1935 – Change and Crisis (1936–39): The General Cinema Finance Corporation, Gaumont-British and A.B.P.C., Production, Boom and slump – The Cinematograph Films Act, 1938.
VI. THE WAR YEARS (1939–1945)	79
Summary of structure in 1939 – The effect of the war on the industry: Exhibition and the supply of films, British production – The progress of integration – The Government and the industry.
VII. RECOVERY AND RELAPSE (1945–1948)	93
The course of production: The “Prestige Experiment” – The “ad valorem” duty and the Anglo-American film agreement – British production and Government intervention: Government assistance for independent producers, Cinematograph Films Act, 1948, “A sound economic basis” – The Rank production disaster.

Part Two

The Topical Background

	Page
VIII. GOVERNMENT INTERVENTION . . . . .	113
The Plant and Gater Reports – The action taken on the Plant Report – The industry's case for Entertainments Tax relief – The British Film Production Fund: The 1951 extension of the B.F.P. Fund.
IX. THE STRUCTURE OF THE MAIN GROUPS . . . . .	133
THE ODEON GROUP. Odeon Theatres Ltd. – Subsidiaries of Odeon Theatres Ltd.: Odeon Associated Theatres Ltd., Odeon Properties Ltd., General Cinema Finance Corporation, Gaumont-British Picture Corporation – The Group's finances.
THE A.B.P.C. GROUP.
THE BRITISH LION GROUP. London Film Productions Ltd. – British Lion Film Corporation.
X. THE PATTERN OF CINEMA OWNERSHIP . . . . .	147
THE POWER OF THE THREE MAIN CIRCUITS. The Selection Committee – A fourth circuit?
XI. AMERICAN INTERESTS IN THE BRITISH MARKET . . . . .	157
Distribution – Production – Exhibition – “Divorcement” in the United States. APPENDIX – Origin of 312 first feature films released on the three main circuits between October 4, 1948 and October 1, 1950.
XII. THE EVIDENCE FROM ABROAD . . . . .	167
France – Italy – Denmark – India – Argentina – Common problems.

Part Three

The Operations of the Industry

XIII. THE CINEMA'S AUDIENCE . . . . .	181
Frequency of cinema-going among adults – Frequency of cinema-going among children – The general pattern – The “missing millions”.
CENSORSHIP.
XIV. THE CINEMA AND ITS PROGRAMME . . . . .	195
The location of cinemas – Opening hours and length of performance – Type and changes of programme: Specialist cinemas, Changes of programme, The Sunday programme.
THE CONTENTS OF FILMS. Analysis by treatment – Analysis by main theme.

CONTENTS

	Page
XV. THE ECONOMICS OF THE CINEMA . . . . .	209
The booking of films: Sunday programmes, Conditional booking, The quota – Wages and salaries – Other expenditure – Trading profits.
XVI. THE FILM DISTRIBUTOR . . . . .	222
The administrative pattern – The division of the distributors' gross – The distribution sequence – Plant Committee proposals and the Trade Committee's answer.
XVII. THE OVERSEAS MARKET . . . . .	241
Earnings from abroad: The United States, The Commonwealth, Other markets.
XVIII. THE PROVISION OF PRODUCTION FINANCE . . . . .	251
METHODS OF FINANCING PRODUCTION. The main combines – Production companies associated with distributors – Independent producers: Finance charges, Sharing of profits.
THE NATIONAL FILM FINANCE CORPORATION. Cost control – Group production scheme.
XIX. THE ECONOMICS OF PRODUCTION . . . . .	265
THE COURSE OF PRODUCTION (1948–51).
THE COSTS OF FIRST FEATURE PRODUCTION. Budget analyses – Under-employment of resources: Studio capacity, Manpower – The return to the producer.
CONCLUSION . . . . .	285
CHRONOLOGICAL TABLE OF MAIN EVENTS (1896–1952) . . . . .	294
INDEX . . . . .	297