

Table of Contents

Introduction	5
María Elena de las Carreras and Jan-Christopher Horak
I Exhibition, Distribution, Reception
Creating a Minority Cinema: Spanish-Language Film Exhibition in Downtown Los Angeles before World War II	13
Jan-Christopher Horak
Hollywood's Spanish-Language Movies in Buenos Aires, Lima, Montevideo, and Mexico City.....	31
Violeta Núñez Gorritti
The Rise and Fall of Spanish Versions (1929-1931), According to Cinelandia Magazine.....	43
Esteve Riambau
Buried in the Vaults: The Restoration of Hollywood's Spanish-language films	51
Roberto Green Quintana
II Production
Cita en Hollywood	65
Juan B. Heinink and Robert G. Dickson
Carlos Borcosque: Learning the Ropes in Hollywood (1927-1938)	83
María Elena de las Carreras
Ramón Peón: A Cuban in the Babel of Languages	95
Luciano Castillo
Gabriel García Moreno: Inventor in Hollywood, Innovator in Mexico	105
María Esperanza Vázquez Bernal and Xóchitl Fernández.
Romualdo Tirado and the Pioneers of Spanish-language Cinema in Los Angeles	113
Alejandra Espasande Bouza
Carlos Gardel's Exito Productions, Inc. A Case of Hispanic Autonomy?	127
César Fratantonio

Guillermo Calles: A Mexican Film Pioneer in California	135
Rogelio Agrasánchez Jr.
José Mojica: The Tenor from Jalisco, Mexico, Who Conquered Hollywood	143
Rosario Vidal Bonifaz
Conchita Montenegro in Hollywood: Reception and Performing Style	153
Núria Bou
Antonio Moreno: The Star Who Returned to Spain without Leaving Hollywood	163
Mar Díaz Martínez
Competing against Hollywood: A Case Study, Contrabando	171
Eduardo de la Vega Alfaro
The Frustrated Career of Celia Villa	179
Bernd Hausberger
Bibliography	191
Spanish-language Films Made in Hollywood (1929-1939)	198
Author Biographies.....	205
Index	210
Acknowledgements	227