

Contents

	PAGE
Preface . . . . .	v
CHAPTER
One—Fundamental and General Principles . . . . .	1
The Theatrical Influence
The Uniqueness of the Visual Aid
Hearing the Second Sense
Religion and the Visual Aids
Getting Started with Visual Aids
Keep Finances Sound
Two—The Projected Visual Aids . . . . .	15
The Opaque Materials
Stereopticon and Miniature Slides
The Filmstrip
The Silent Film
The Sound Film
Three—The Teacher and Visual Aids . . . . .	40
Principles for the Teacher
The Problem of Readiness in Visual Teaching
Built-in Motivation
Four—Utilization . . . . .	53
Choosing Visual Aids
Using Slides in the Church Program
Using Films in the Church Program

CHAPTER	PAGE
Five—Techniques of Utilization . . . . .	82
Picture Appreciation
Picture-Focused Worship
The Film Forum
Six—The Motion Picture and Worship . . . . .	105
Present Films Are Limited
The Illustration of Hymns
Seven—The Physical Factors in Visual Programs . . . . .	117
Getting Ready and Using the Room
Setting Up the Projection Equipment
The Physical Aspects of Audience Management
Getting Projection Materials Ready
Factors Involved in Executing the Program
A Few Do's and Don'ts
Eight—Understanding Projection Equipment . . . . .	137
Projection Screens
A Functional Analysis of Projectors
Nine—Promotion and Administration . . . . .	154
The Preview Conference
The Methods Conference
The Training of Teachers
The Administration of Visual Aids
Ten—Some Unsolved Problems . . . . .	178
The Relative Effectiveness of Projected Visual Media
Auditory Supplementation
Criteria for Visual Materials
The Problem of Distribution
Apocryphal Inclusion
The Screen Portrayal of Jesus
Eleven—Programs . . . . .	199
A Reading List . . . . .	213