

CONTENTS

*

Page

BETWEEN OURSELVES_____ 7

WHY A PORTRAIT ?_____ 8

EQUIPMENT_____ 10

Comparison of Large and Small Cameras. Cleaning the Lens. Miniature Lenses and Perspective. Tripods. Exposure Meters. The Lens Hood. Types of Lamps. Making the Spot-Major. Making the Minnie-Spot. Backgrounds.

THE MODEL AND YOU_____ 17

Harmonious Relationship and how to attain it. Passive Resistance. Boredom. Inattention. Types of Models—Women, Men, Children. The Mother Problem. The Babe in Arms.

LIGHTING_____ 30

Light Intensity. Making a Dimmer. The Advantages of the Photo-flood. Photo-flood Exposures Simplified. The Factor System. Colour of Light. Using the Exposure Meter. The High-Light Method. Ohms Law. Finding the Running Costs of Lamps.

HIGH-KEY OR LOW ?_____ 42

Musical comparison. High-key. Low-key. How Tones affect the Portrait.

POSING THE MODEL_____ 53

The Body in relationship to Position of Head. The Profile. Dealing with Physical Defects. The Eyes. Hands and how to place them. Feet and Legs.

BEFORE YOU BEGIN_____ 63

Planning Ahead. Negative Material and Colour Sensitivity. Miniature Camera Emulsions. Facial Correction. The Use of Make-up. Using Props. Filters. Backgrounds.

COMPOSITION_____ 71

The Frame, or Picture Space. Correct Placing. The Value of the Masking "L's." The Diagonal Method. Thirds, or The Golden Mean, and the Formula. Practical Application. Tone Emphasis. The Law of Isolation.

	Page
INDOORS (1 lamp) _____	78
Flat Lighting with One Bulb. Nose-to-Lip Lighting. Reflectors. Using One Bulb and Daylight.
INDOORS (2 lamps) _____	86
Again the 45° Lighting. Shadow Illumination. Lighting the Background. Rim Lighting. The Viewing Filter. Using the Spotlight. The Circle Light. The Open-door Background.
INDOORS (3 lamps) _____	92
High-key. Arranging Three Lamps. Dark accent with High-key. The problem of the Full-length figure.
OUTDOORS _____	94
Advantages of Daylight. Dealing with Harsh Noon-day Sunshine. Sunshine and Reflectors Outdoors. In the Garden. The Mirror. The Best Lens Aperture. Filters. The Filter Rhyme. Points to Watch. What the Model should Wear. Using Stiles, Fences, Tree-trunks, etc. The Double Portrait, and the Placing of the Heads. Originality in Pose. Synchroflash for Shadows. Calculating Exposure with Synchroflash Outdoors.
THE INFORMAL _____	111
Informal Portraiture versus Candid Photography. Advantages of the Miniature Camera. Plan of Working. Value of Trimming.
IN THE DARKROOM _____	117
Negative Developers. ID.11. Modified Sease 3. Developing Technique. High-key Development. DK 20. After-Treatment of the Negative. Intensification and Formula. Reduction and Formula. Producing the Print. Grades of Paper. Calculating Exposure. The MCM Photometer. An Improvised System of Calculating Exposure. Dodging. Burning-in Shadows. Montage with Two Negatives. Tilting the Easel to Lengthen the Face. Multigrade. Paper Developers. D.72. MCM Acid-Hardening Fixing Bath. Finishing the Print. Hints for Tone Improvement. Spotting. Use of the Brush. Dope Finishing with Formula. Using Shoe Polish. Mounting and Placing the Print. Methods of Mounting. Rubber Solution. Dry Mounting. Titles and Signatures.	