

CONTENTS

PART I

NEGATIVE AND POSITIVE RETOUCHING

PREFACE	v
CHAPTER I — WORKING MATERIALS	3
Why Retouching Is Necessary — Soft-Focus Lenses — Diffusion in Printing — Lighting — Possibilities of Retouching — Advice as to Materials — Spotting — Causes of Pinholes and Airbells — How to Spot a Negative — Sharpening the Pencils — Cleaning the Pencil — Abuse of Pencilling — Varied Pencil Points — Applying the Medium — Removal of Retouching
CHAPTER II — USING THE TOOLS	25
Use of Window Shades — To Shut Out Side Light — Working by Artificial Light — The Dimming Switch — Position at Desk — Distance from the Negative — Holding the Pencil — Knife and Abrasive Work — How to Hold the Knife — Sharpening Knives — — Abrasive Pastes — Example of Knife and Abrasive Work — Double Working — Practice Negatives — What to Look For — What Stroke to Use — How to Avoid Eye Strain — Blending
CHAPTER III — MODELLING	44
The Forehead — Wrinkles — The Cheek — The Lips and Mouth — The Nose — Eyes and Eyebrows — The Chin — The Ears — The Shadow Cheek — The Neck, Bust and Arms
CHAPTER IV — METHODS OF WORKING	55
Children's Faces — An Example of Retouching — Babies and Aged People — Retouching a Man's Por- trait — Accidental Scars — Regarding Anatomy and

CONTENTS

Likeness — Freckled Faces — The Ordinary Face — The Best Touch — Direction of the Touch — Delicate Work Very Necessary — Minimizing Defects by Careful Choice of the Best Point of View — Eyes that Do Not Match — Crooked Noses — Camera Angle and Height of Camera — Photographer Must be Observant — Etching — Practice Work — Reducing Paste
CHAPTER V — USE OF MAKE-UP	76
Street Make-up Not Suitable — Applying the Make-up — Correcting Defects with Make-up
CHAPTER VI — OTHER APPLICATIONS AND METHODS OF RETOUCHING	82
Landscape and Architectural Negatives — Paper Negative Process — Making a Paper Negative — Eliminating Texture — Mediobrome — The Abrasion-Tone Process — Chemical Etching — Duplicating Film — Groundglass Substitute — Working on the Back of the Negative — Papier Mineral — The Airbrush — Blocking Out — Negative Varnish — Softening Edges — Etching Away the Background — Filling in Scratches on the Negative — Retouching Photographs of Animals — Etching a Single Figure from a Group — Straightening Crossed Eyes
PART II
FINISHING AND COLORING PHOTOGRAPHS
CHAPTER VII — MONOCHROME FINISHING	107
Working Up Enlargements in Monochrome — Cloudy Backgrounds — Vignetting — Fixing the Powder — Brush Work — The Hair, Eyes, etc. — Crosshatching — Stippling — The Scraper — General Remarks
CHAPTER VIII — THE USE OF THE AIRBRUSH	125
Description of the Airbrush — Air Supply — Position at the Easel — Colors — Preparing Colors — Preliminary Practice — The Principle of Airbrush

CONTENTS

Work — A Hint as to Roundness — Use of Frisket Paper — Working Up Portraits — Working Up Landscape Pictures — Cleaning the Airbrush

CHAPTER IX — COLORING ENLARGEMENTS IN WATER
COLORS 137

Color Terms Explained — The Kind of Print That Is Best for Coloring — Brush Washes — Flesh Tints — The Eyes — Shadows, etc., on Face — Coloring Hair — Draperies

CHAPTER X — FINISHING IN OIL COLORS 146

Characteristics of Color — The Russian Method of Applying Oil Colors — The Kind of Print for Coloring — Applying the Colors — Portraits — Landscapes — Working Up Enlargements in Black and White and Colored Crayons