

CONTENTS

List of Figures and Tables	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
1. Change and Continuity: The Making of Contemporary Hollywood Animation	1
Production Trends	2
Animation and Hollywood Cinema Since the 1970s	6
Style and Aesthetics	22
Storytelling and Narrative	28
Critical Approach	39
2. Crossing Boundaries: Families, Audiences and the Mainstream Aesthetic	41
The Family Audience	43
Repositioning the Family: The Lion King and Toy Story	47
Family and Kinship	54
Family and Individualism	67
Child-Adult Crossovers	74
3. Hollywood Animation, Late Modernity and Contemporary America	78
Postmodern Irony: DreamWorks and Beyond	79
Social Comment and Contemporary America	92
Conclusion	107

4. Ways of Being: Identity and Hollywood Animation	109
Disney in Transition: Sexual Politics in the Early Films of the ‘Disney Renaissance’	109
Diversity and Contemporary Disney Films	114
Women and the Contemporary Princess Film	128
Models of Masculinity	137
Conclusion	142
5. On the Borders: Children’s Horror and Indiewood Animation	144
Children’s Horror and Contemporary Hollywood	145
‘Indiewood’ Animation	161
Hybridisation	171
Conclusion	175
Conclusion	178
Notes	185
Select Filmography	206
Select Bibliography	209
Index	213