

CONTENTS

FOREWORD	7
I INDUSTRY AND ART	9
Using Films. The New Art. Making films. The Camera. Editing. The Script. Sound. Music. It isn't so easy. Working in groups. How films get made. The commercial motive. The rise of the tycoons. Hollywood takes over. The all-powerful middleman. Protection. Rebirth of an Industry. The Vicious Circle. Ballyhoo. Problems of the box-office. The Virtuous Circle. What we want.
II FANTASY AND FACT	33
Beyond the box-office. Problems of patronage. Films are expensive. Technical problems. Where the money comes from. The bases of documentary. Pedagogics are not enough. Meeting a need. What documentary does. New audiences. The box-office of ideas. Films as a public service. New patrons. All sorts and conditions. Film Societies. Science stakes a claim. Children and Teachers. New films mean new methods. The Amateur. Will Hollywood cash in? The best of both worlds.
III WORLD CINEMA	54
Screenspace for all. British bargaining points. The end of ballyhoo. Propaganda—real or unreal? 'Shop.' Brass tacks before Utopia. The biggest plan of all.
IV BIBLIOGRAPHY	67