

005	INTRODUCTION
	1. REPRODUCING ART'S HISTORY
017	"The Life of Objects": Sculpture as Subject and Object of the Camera's Lens Geraldine A. Johnson
059	Josef Sudek and the Photography of Works of Art – his Predecessors and Contemporaries Jan Mlčoch
081	Sudek's Revelations Antonín Dufek
	2. FROM SOUVENIR TO ARCHIVE DOCUMENT
103	Rodin and his Marble Sculptures: A Photographic Passion Hélène Pinet
121	Manzoni in the Photothek. Photographic Archives as Ecosystems Costanza Caraffa
139	The Ambivalent Power of Reproduction: Josef Sudek's Postcards Amy Hughes
	3. SCULPTURE AS PHOTOGENIC BODY
159	The Photographic Detail and Sculptural Seeing Sarah Hamill
177	Braun, Brokof, Sudek et al.: Czech Baroque Sculpture in the Light of Modernist Photography Hana Buddeus
197	Modern Sculpture, A Photobook Megan R. Luke
	4. ARTISTS IN THE ROLE OF CLIENTS
219	Photographer and Painter: Josef Sudek and the Mystery of the Image Vojtěch Lahoda
235	Volume, Material and "Something Else": Sudek as Engaged Observer of a Turning Point in Modern Czech Sculpture Katarína Mašterová
263	There Appeared to Be Chaos: Josef Sudek's Work in the Context of Avant-Garde Architectural Photography in the 1920s and 1930s Rolf Sachsse
279	The Poetics of Geometry: Josef Sudek as a Photographer of Modern Architecture Mariana Kubištová
297	CONTRIBUTORS
303	SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY
313	INDEX