

CONTENTS

I

Why Go to the Cinema?

How Do You Choose Your Films? Escape into a Modern Fairyland. Do You Follow the Stars? Everyone Can See and Hear. Films are Easy to Understand. The Man Behind the Little Glass Window.

I

2

What is a Film?

Thousands of Tiny Photographs Make a Film. How the Roll of Film Is Used. How the Sounds Are Photographed. Matching the Sounds to the Action. What is a Credit Title? What Is a Good Film Story? Something the Screen Cannot Do. The Film Begins to Take Shape. How the Scenarist Helps the Actor. The Story Cannot Be Filmed in Order.

17

3

The 'Big Picture'

The Man at the Top: the Producer. The Invisible Star: the Director. Quick or Slow Action? the Director Decides. What the Art Director Does. Cobwebs or Flowers: the Art Director Decides. The Lighting Expert Has a Tough Job. Lights Must Follow the Stars. An Invisible Listener: the Microphone and its Master. The Man with the Camera. The Man Who 'Puts the Film Together': the Editor. A Kind of Ciné Peep Show. A Conundrum for the Editor. A Man of Many Bright Ideas. Keeping the Action Going. What Sort of a Film Do You Like? History on the Screen. Britain's Most Costly Film. How You Can Judge a Film.

39

4

The Documentary · A Film about Ourselves

The First Documentaries. The Real Documentary. Facts that Are More Exciting than 'Stars'. Films Carry Messages Across the World. How Documentaries are Made. Talking On and Off the Screen. Cutting Brings the Film to Life. A Bold Film About Our Food. An Idea Borrowed by the Story Film. The Documentary Shows Us the World.

67

5

Films In Miniature · The Private Cinema

How the Small Film Started. Where the Small Films Can Be Seen. Films to Meet all Needs. The Most Vivid Way of Teaching. Learning a Job from Films. Films at School. Close-Ups Make Learning Easier. Films Can Help You to Choose a Job. Experiments We Can All See. Libraries Will Lend All Kinds of Films. How to Get Perfect Results with the Small Film.

83

6

News Reels of To-day and To-morrow

Are You Interested in the News Reel? The News Reel Does Not Explain. What Is News? Sometimes a One-Sided Affair. News Reels Don't Tell the Whole Story. Speed the Essence of the News Reel. Rain, Hail or Snow —the Camera Must Turn. The News Reel Library of Noises. Is The March of Time a News Reel? Will the News Reel Change? A News Reel that Would Tell You Why.

98

7

Magic and Mystery · The Cartoon

Something that Everyone can Understand. Pictures Tell Stories Quicker than Words. A Film the Whole World Loved. How a Cartoon Is Made. The Drawing Begins to Move. How to Make a Teapot Dance. Hundreds of Plutos a Minute. The Drawings Begin to Talk. Something only the Screen Can Give Us.

114

8

Where Films Come From

First-Class Technique or a Good Story? Millions Are Dazzled by the Stars. Films that Advertise America. Quality or Quantity? the British Film's Battle. The French Film Is True to Life. The Russian Film Is Meant to Teach. Films from All Over the World.

126

9

Films Made Specially for Young People

What You See at a Cinema Club. How the Programmes Are Planned. A Chance to Get the Films You Like.

136

10

Are You a Film Critic?

When a Film Is Not a Film. How to Enjoy Films More. How to Judge a Film. What Do the Critics Say? Can We See Real Life on the Screen? Why Are Poor Films Made? When the Star is too Dazzling.

143

FILMS THAT EVERYONE SHOULD SEE

155

INDEX

158